PORTFOLIO REPORTS

Councillor Schreiner

Works on upper Granville Avenue going well. Residents seem pleased with works.

Councillor Baird

Planters around town will be repurposed and relocated to achieve most impact.

Attended a Shuswap River advisory meeting. A list of key dates will be released soon. Surveys are being circulated and will be available online for feedback.

Councillor Shishido

Chamber of Commerce still working on the establishment of a “calendar of events”. The Chief Administrative Officer stated that the software is already available and they should not have to hire an outside company. The calendar can be synchronized with key user groups with a user name and password to access. They could input their event, and the web coordinator would then review and post appropriately. He reported that in the past, the difficulty was always getting the user groups to submit information.

There is a Chamber meeting on May 6th. Discussions will take place on getting the calendar expanded and possibly incorporate a community bulletin board. Councillor Shishido will pass on the Chief Administrative Officers suggestions to the Manager.

Mayor McCune

Spoke with Mayor Acton regarding his ipad. Lumby uses the i-Compass programs for their paperless agendas.

The annual clean up was very well attended this year. It has been suggested that incentives be set up next year to encourage the business community to “challenge” other businesses.

Councillor Davyduke

Empowering Women - presenter had lots of good marketing ideas.

Councillor Knust

There is an interagency meeting this Thursday.

Will be attending the Seniors Town Hall Meeting in Vernon on Friday.

FACT Meeting was held today. A space for the “Hut” needs to be secured by June as the church will be undergoing renovations.

Councillor Case

Attended a North Okanagan Historical Society Annual General Meeting and addressed the group regarding the railway. It was an information session only. Bob Cowan provided a history of the rail line; Councillor Case spoke to the local government position; and Phil McIntyre Paull of the Shuswap Trail Alliance explained what a trail could look like and what would be required to ensure it gets developed right.
