PORTFOLIO REPORTS

Councillor Case

- Splatsin meeting:
 - Need to determine funding for entrance signage.
 - Interpretive signage will be used on the new Riverwalk extension.
 - Loretta Eustache is no longer Chief Administrative Officer.

Councillor Baird

- Splatsin meeting:
 - Food security – have asked them to commit specific amount of monies to program.
 - When at UBCM, ask province for help with funding.
 - Community gardens – work with Fink Machine to get greenhouses set up on band land.
 - Entrance signage – once a concept plan is in place, the works can go to an RFP process. If the pier design that is being done on Cliff Avenue is chosen for entrance signage, a lot of the works have already been done.
- Recreation Services does not have debit or credit card capability.
- Bead Trail is a very popular marketing tool. Armstrong Chamber of Commerce is participating and Enderby should also consider getting on board.
- Lions Club is setting up a work-bee at the ball park to deal with recent graffiti.

Councillor Shishido

- Early Years:
 - They have been working with Revelstoke who have some very good programs.
 - “Family-friendly” business awards – acknowledging businesses that focus on families.
 - Toy and clothing swap to assist low income families. This could be expanded to include sports equipment.
 - Various outdoor events are being considered.
- Events calendar:
 - Many groups are ready to participate.

Councillor Schreiner

Councillor Schreiner commented that the City website and Facebook page is providing good updates on the construction progress and schedule.

Chief Administrative Officer

- Vernon Street upgrades are pretty much complete. One more street light to be installed.
- Cliff Avenue upgrades are approximately 1 – 1 ½ days ahead of schedule. Curbing is going in this week.
- Will be meeting with Braden Kiefiuk to check on pier structures.
- The public and businesses have been very patient through the Cliff Avenue works. The contractors are also very good at working in a challenging area.
- Salmon Arm walking/biking path has had repairs and new asphalt patches where tree roots were removed.

ADJOURNMENT

Moved by Councillor Case, seconded by Councillor Shishido that the Committee-of-the-Whole meeting adjourn at 4:30 p.m.
