PORTFOLIO REPORTSCouncillor Baird

- Okanagan Regional Library – the Okanagan Regional Library's Chief Executive Officer has announced her departure.
- Enderby and District Services Commission – there is a surplus of $28,000 in the Spray Park account. It will be used for Phase II.

Councillor Shishido

- Little City Merchant new year's eve party at the Splat-sin Centre was very good.
- The shower pressure at the arena is still not working properly.
- A local resident has spoken to him regarding open burning.

Councillor Davyduke

- New Year's Eve party was great success. They are already making plans for next year.
- FACT meeting – working on mission statement and setting goals for the year.

Councillor Case

- Rail line purchase now complete. People are already using the trail but servicing and signage is not in place. An information session is being planned.

Councillor Knust

- FACT – Lorraine Felix reported the Splatsin is putting in 3 more community gardens. Fruit trees will be planted.
- Interagency – more meetings being planned for 2018. They plan to get lots of groups on board for the Feb 15th meeting. The interagency group may organize a town hall meeting to discuss crime in the community.
- There is concern that Jerry's Antiques is displaying merchandise contrary to the Zoning Bylaw.

Moved by Councillor Knust, seconded by Councillor Baird that bylaw enforcement be directed to engage with the owner of Jerry's Antiques and require compliance with bylaws regarding the proper storage and display of products.
