

REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

City of Enderby – Interactive Public Art Project

Description:

Request for Proposals – Interactive Public Art Project

Installation:

2020

Budget:

All paint and materials to be supplied.

It could be your next big break as an artist!

Would you like to see your artwork featured on a high profile City building? Are you interested in building your portfolio?

The City of Enderby is looking for interested Artists or Artist teams to propose designs of Interactive Artwork that would engage the spectators in becoming a part of the painting. This artwork is to be located on Municipal Buildings throughout the community in Enderby, BC. The proposal should include appropriate content that reflects and compliments the character of the community and the natural beauty of the surroundings.

The Artist would donate their talent while the City would provide all the materials needed for each project, as well as the “canvas” for the mural.

Proposals should include:

- An artist biography and portfolio (If available)
- A description or sketch of the mural concept
- An estimate of the supplies needed to complete the work
- Other requirements or expectations of the artist

Closing Date:

Artist Applications will be accepted until 2:00 p.m. (local time), Friday, March 20, 2020.
