PORTFOLIO REPORTS

Councillor Baird

Attended the Rail Trail Committee Meeting. Askew's Foods has donated $100,000 over the next 5 years to the Shuswap North Okanagan Rail Trail. Councillor Baird attended the Library Board meeting and noted that the Chief Financial Officer has taken on a new position with a different organization, so the Okanagan Regional Library is hiring a successor.

Councillor Davyduke

Small Business Week Highlights:

- No fee for online courses through Community Futures.
- Brenda Lyon is the new Community Futures Business Service Advisor.
- Labour shortages are affecting employers.
- Work BC in Enderby is requiring masks while visiting. There are over 20 jobs in Enderby on the job board.
- Job counselling services are available.

Councillor Schreiner

Attended a Ministry of Transportation and Infrastructure Meeting. The purpose of this meeting was mainly regarding the corridor from Armstrong to Enderby.

Councillor Schreiner to represent Enderby on the Rail Trail Indigenous Art Committee along with Splatsin.

Discussed recent changes to provincial legislation enabling local governments to adopt plastic bag bylaws. Asked if Council was interested in exploring this. It was agreed to explore this in the context of the 2022 Strategic Plan update.
